Quilling, the coiling and shaping of narrow paper strips to create a design, has been around for years – hundreds, in fact. During the Renaissance, nuns and monks would roll gold-gilded paper remnants trimmed during the bookmaking process, and use them to decorate religious objects as an alternative to costly gold filigree.

Quilling, or paper filigree, is the art of creating intricate shapes from strips of paper. The technique is simple: After a long, narrow ribbon of paper is rolled around a needlelike tool, the strip is slipped off, arranged with your fingertips into the desired shape, and then glued to a background of contrasting paper, fabric, or wood.

Thirdly I have another online store where I sell a variety of paper quilling paper strips, tools, and related supplies. I mostly sell those within Malaysia where I currently live, but I also have customers worldwide. I love the blend of both sharing/selling tutorials and supplies as well as making/selling my own paper jewelry.
