Reference Lists – The references page is usually located at the end of your written document. However, tables and/or appendices, if used, come after the references page.

APA Style Guidelines & Examples

APA Style refers to the standards of written communication described in the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association. The APA style guide is comprised of a set of rules and guidelines created for publishers and writers to make sure that written material is presented clearly and consistently.

The Process of Research Writing Chapter 12, Citing Your Research Using MLA or APA Style, 2 Steven D. Krause | <http://www.stevendkrause.com/tprw> | Spring 2007

Chapter 12 Citing Your Research Using MLA or APA Style

APA style calls for a list of references instead of a bibliography or works cited page. The requirements for a reference list is that all references cited in the text of a paper must be listed alphabetically by the first author's last name.
